DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to Amendment filed July 12, 2007. Claims 1-11 are presented for further examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bishop et al. (hereinafter "Bishop", US Patent Publication 2005/0187883 A1).

As per claim 1, Bishop discloses a method comprising:

- examining whether an Internet page opened on a display screen of a terminal supports a standard according to a wallet program of the terminal (paragraph [0087]);
- displaying a wallet icon on the display screen of the terminal if the Internet page opened does support the standard of the wallet program for indicating to the user that the user can use the wallet program (paragraphs [0066, 0084, 0087]);
- starting the wallet program from said displayed wallet icon (paragraph [0068, 0088]).

Art Unit: 2157

As per claim 2, Bishop discloses a method according to claim 1 wherein said wallet program is a wallet program complying with the ECML (Electronic Commerce Modeling Language) standard (paragraph [0078]).

As per claim 3, Bishop discloses a method according to claim 1 wherein the wallet program is started for transferring account transaction information, such as payment card information, from the buyer to a vendor's Internet page (paragraph [0068]).

As per claim 4, Bishop discloses a terminal comprising:

- A display screen (paragraph [0064]);
- an Internet browser program (paragraph [0065]);
- wallet program for storing information in electronic form on the terminal and for transferring information from the terminal to an Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal, wherein the terminal further includes an application for determining a standard supported by the Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal and responsive to the standard being a standard supported by the wallet program, indicating to the user that the user can use the wallet program by displaying a wallet icon on the display screen and further enabling the user to open the wallet program by pressing the displayed wallet icon (paragraphs [0064, 0084-0085, 0087-0088]).

Art Unit: 2157

As per claim 5, Bishop discloses a terminal according to claim 4 wherein said wallet program is a wallet program complying with the ECML (Electronic Commerce Modeling Language) standard (paragraph [0078]).

As per claim 6, Bishop discloses a terminal according to claim 4 wherein said terminal is a wireless terminal such as a mobile phone (paragraph [0063]).

As per claim 7, Bishop discloses a terminal according to claim 4 wherein said application is part of the Internet browser software of the terminal (paragraph [0065]).

As per claim 8, Bishop discloses an application at an Internet terminal having an Internet browser program and wallet program for storing information in electronic form on the terminal and for transferring information from the terminal to an Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal, said application comprising

- a means for determining a wallet program standard supported by the Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal (paragraph [0087]);;

- a means responsive to the wallet program standard being a standard supported by the wallet program, indicating to the user that the user can use the wallet program by displaying a wallet icon on the display screen and further enabling the user to open the wallet program by pressing the displayed wallet icon (paragraph [0068, 0087-0088]).

Art Unit: 2157

As per claim 9, Bishop discloses an application according to claim 8, wherein said wallet program is a wallet program complying with the ECML (Electronic Commerce Modeling Language) standard (paragraph [0078]).

As per claim 10, Bishop discloses an application according to claim 8 further comprises means for enabling and disabling the application (paragraph [0064]).

As per claim 11, Bishop discloses an application according to claim 8 comprising a part of the Internet browser software of the terminal (paragraph [0062, 0066]).

The Office notes the following argument(s):

(a) A wallet icon displayed to indicate that a page supports the standard supported by the wallet program, where the displayed wallet icon can be used to start the wallet program is not anticipated by Bishop.

In response to:

3. Applicant's arguments filed have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

(a) Bishop teaches monitoring the URL as the user browses to determine whether the user is browsing at a supported site of the wallet program. If the site does support the wallet program, a particular icon is displayed. By clicking the icon, the wallet application is activated (paragraphs [0084-0088]).

Therefore, Bishop indeed discloses a wallet icon displayed to indicate that a page supports the standard supported by the wallet program, where the displayed wallet icon can be used to start the wallet program.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
